

City Tour - San Diego Old & New
Tuesday - October 27, 2009

Introduce guests to San Diego with a city excursion. A year-round mild climate, seventy miles of beaches, a myriad of recreational activities, and world famous Zoo are just some of the reasons why San Diego has been deemed, "City with Sol".

The first stop is beautiful Balboa Park, one of America's largest municipal parks housing museums from the 1915 Panama-Pacific International Exposition and the 1935 California Pacific International Exposition. It is the second largest collection of museums outside of Washington D.C. Balboa Park is also home to the world famous San Diego Zoo.

Next, it's off to Old Town State Historic Park, where San Diego began, recreates the setting of California life of the Spanish and early American periods. Its historic buildings, shops and restaurants illustrate the vast changes that have taken place in this city since it was first settled in 1769.

Guests will have free time to explore Old Town on their own where they will experience early Americana with its distinctive "West Coast Style" Spanish flavor. Guests will also enjoy a deliciously authentic luncheon at Casa Guadalajara, a true Mexican Fiesta.

The tour ends with a drive through the newly restored Historic Gaslamp District in route to the B-Street Pier where guests will enjoy a one-hour harbor excursion along San Diego Bay. The Bay is considered to be one of the finest natural harbors on the Pacific Coast. It is a bustling commercial port for shipping and fishing, home to the U.S. Naval First Fleet, and protected home for thousands of luxurious private sailboats and yachts.

The tour also passes through the Embarcadero. The Embarcadero lines the San Diego Bay from the Maritime Museum, the ferry boat Berkeley and majestic Star of India to Sea-port Village and the San Diego Convention Center.
